DELEGATES ARE TENDERED A RECEPTION

MEMBERS OF TOURIST ASSO- CIATION ENTERTAINED BY BUSINESS MEN

Ten delegates representing the Tourist Association of the bay cities who have been in attendance at the Stockton convention for the early part of this week were met at the Santa Fe depot by a number of prominent business men at 4:30 this afternoon and taken to the Elks' club rooms where they were tendered a reception.

The delegation was composed of a number of various civic club leaders of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda.

A short program had been arranged at the Elks' building by a committee composed of Senator James C. Owens, Fred Schram, A. C. Lang, Harry Pulse, Julius Stiefvater, Frank Hull, J. F. Galvin and D. W. McLaughlin.

The members of the association who stopped over here today have about completed all the minor details for the convention and other big times which are planned to be held in San Francisco during 1915.

JOHNSTON OUT FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

In this issue of the Record-Herald T. D. Johnston, the well known attorney of Richmond announces his candidacy for the office of District Attorney. Mr. Johnston has served two terms in the legislature as assemblyman and for a time was a

GOAT PLAYS HAVOC WHILE TIED UP IN EXPRESS OFFICE

A large white Billy goat was the cause of much trouble and annoyance to the Wells Fargo employees yesterday. While tied up in the back room of the local office he ate his own shipping tag, also those on many of the trunks and crates.

When it came time for him to be placed aboard a train that he might be carried to his destination no tag was found on him.

Manager Harry Petillon was nonplused for a while but soon solved the mystery by calling up the Oakland office from which place the animal had been shipped. It was learned that his new owner resided in St. George so a new tag consisting of a heavy iron disc was tied around his neck and he was sent rejoicing on his way.

MAN WRITES NOTE THEN JUMPS IN PATH OF TRAIN

Santa Fe Limited, With Local Train Crew, Grinds Stockton Man Into A Pulp

An eastbound Santa Fe train, in charge of Conductor E. C. Connell, residing at 228 Third street, and Engineer Seely of this city, ran over an unknown man a few miles this side of Stockton at an early hour yesterday morning.

Coroner Wallace of that city is of the opinion that the death of the man was suicidal from a letter that was found a few yards distant and is as follows:

"While my loved ones sleep in peace, it is with leisure I walk forth and lay me down to die."

Deputy District Attorney under A. B. McKenzie.

LIBRARIANS SUBMIT AN EXHIBIT

One hundred questions, arranged in chart form, subjects of which range all the way from cures for cold feet customs for the celebration of wooden weddings, how to write moving picture scenarios, cause of appendicitis and curing the myxomatosis, is a part of the splendid exhibit arranged by the Richmond librarians and her staff for the Richmond-Contra Costa county exhibit for the world's fair.

The novelty of this one feature of the exhibit has caused widespread admiration and comment. Questions asked and answered by patrons of the public library is the subject. At the center of the chart is pictured the desk of the librarian. From it are arranged the queries, each written at the center of the question mark. There are one hundred of them. This chart perhaps illustrates the wonderful educational facilities of a public library better than volumes could. It speaks with the definite precision of a cartoon.

Miss Della May Wiley and Miss Ruth Epperson arranged the exhibit. Besides this chart there are photographs of the library neatly mounted and decorated with hand paintings of merit. There is one oil painting of the Standard Oil works which has also attracted the attention of the artists who have seen it. The magnificent industrial plant is painted so that its reflection is shown in the waters to the west.

Altogether nothing could exceed the influence of these charts and photographs arranged by the two young ladies. They are a perfect exhibit of Richmond's advancement and commercial center. Miss Epperson did the painting and Miss Epperson arranged the mounted photos.

The exhibit will be opened Monday. Every industry, and every point of interest will be shown. It is located in the Lick Building on Montgomery street in San Francisco.

SHOWER OF GOLD PROVES POPULAR MANY IN BIG CONTEST FOR PRIZES

And now babies—How about it? Are you bright-eyed and wide awake this afternoon? Will you be among the many nappy little youngsters whose names will appear in the big list of Shower of Gold entrants when the list is published in the Record-Herald next week?

You know, little folks, it's never too early to begin. History is just full of the names of babies who began early, and by hustling and hustling became famous. The thing to do is every time you scream, kick or make a noise, let someone hear you and right now you have an opportunity of making the biggest noise ever. Get in the Record-Herald's Shower of Gold Contest for Babies, get in with both feet, and once in, make a noise, a big healthy noise, and as sure as you live you should be right under the Golden Shower on July 25th.

And little ones—here is an opportunity to pile up coupons. In today's announcement, which can be found on another page is a subscriber's coupon. There are a great many people now who are taking the Record-Herald, who will only be too glad to save the five vote coupon appearing daily in the Record-Herald. There are hundreds

PIES AND CAKES SPILL ON STREET

Pies and cakes galore were spread over the street at the corner of Barrett avenue and Sixth street this morning. A rush of small boys and girls followed the wreck of the new delivery wagon of the American French Baking company.

The brightly yellow painted covered wagon lost one of its rear wheels, causing the upsetting of the vehicle laden with lots of good things to eat. About an hour was consumed transferring the cargo of the staff of life, pies, cakes. No other damage was caused.

MOONEY CASE GOES TO JURY LATE TODAY

PRACTICALLY NO NEW EVIDENCE DENIED. TRIAL DEVOID OF SPECIAL INTEREST

The trial of Thomas Mooney will go to the jury tonight. Arguments are now being made by both attorneys for the prosecution and defense. Practically no new evidence was submitted by either side.

Today E. S. Hurley and R. L. Colander qualified and testified as experts in the matter of explosives. Their evidence was submitted in the interests of the accused. Both minimized the power of the fuiminating caps. Mrs. L. O'Keefe, wife of the night watchman at the brick yard, testified as to the conduct of the men during the time they had tied their boat near the brick yard at South Vallejo.

Argument was opened for the prosecution by Attorney Theo. D. Johnston, who was followed by M. R. Jones, McNutt and District Attorney McKenzie concluded.

The trial was held by Judge N. D. Arnett, of Eldorado county, sitting in extra session.

POLY STUDENTS WILL GRADUATE THIS EVE

Twenty-four students of the Polytechnic Business college will receive their diplomas this evening. The address of the evening will be delivered by Attorney W. F. Freudenberg while the presentation of the sheepskins will be made by Principal Anderson.

Rev. Stewart of the Calvary Baptist church will deliver the invocation and benediction.

"To Observations Which Ourselves We Make, We Grow More Partial, for the Observer's Sake."

PARTICEPS CRIMINIS

That sounds like it might be Latin. Maybe it's hog Latin, and probably it is, as the article it is taken from deals with a lot of human hogs that belong in a pen—penitentiary.

At the risk of being called a liar by some tipper or peewee around these bay marshes we are going to assert that Judge Goodwin, of Salt Lake City, one of the very best writers and thinkers of the west, and this scribe have been old editorial friends for about twenty years, having exchanged papers and ideas about that length of time. And, also not to pick a row with Judge Goodwin, whom we esteem most highly, but merely for argument's sake and to clinch a point, we are going to point him out as a terrible example, knowing that he is big enough and broadminded enough to see the drift and not take offense.

From a long editorial in Goodwin's Weekly we quote the following and agree with every word of it. Speaking of President Mellen's testimony and of J. Pierpont Morgan, after tracing the tendency of the times, Judge Goodwin says: "Then the marvelous executive brain of Mr. Morgan began its work. He and his friends controlled the money of the country, and had fixed things in such a way that men with surplus means leaned on his judgment to guide their investments. He made investment in railroad securities, and, if a road was unprofitable and the stocks were low, he took it in, declared a dividend, lifted the stock out of the dump and then unloaded. He combined the different steel companies into one, organized a new company and unloaded the stock, then divided $80,000,000 with a few friends. His friends wanted Tennessee Iron and Coal so he maneuvered to take it in, and when the opportunity was offered to obtain it by involving the whole Republic in a panic, he did not hesitate for a minute but caused the panic to be precipitated. Behind all he laid his plans, he and a few like him and caused the law to be passed making all debts payable in gold and by the same law doubled the purchasing power of gold that the nation should never extricate itself from the burden of debt upon it. That millions of men were ruined by the legislation did not for a moment disturb his sleep. His thought of the public was like that of Falstaff for his command—"food for powder, food for powder." From the same source Mark Hanna was supplied with his corruption fund in 1896 to debase and demoralize the people. The wise eastern press during all those years applauded that work. Now it seems they have discovered that Mr. Morgan and his friends were merely so many old wood rats. The ruling trait of the rat is to acquire things. Now that same press is badly shocked, never thinking apparently that it was particeps criminis in the whole dreary business. In his will Mr. Morgan invoked the mercy (and forgetfulness) of the all-compassionate Saviour to save him, but what power can save the editors who for a quarter of a century as teachers of the people, helped the wood rats in their stealings?"

Now, Judge, for the sake of suffering humanity, and to acquire knowledge, we want to ask you some questions.

An editorial advocate of the Republican party, the party that condoned all that and made it possible by lack of trust legislation or the enforcement thereof, the party in whose interest Mark Hanna raised and spent that gigantic corruption fund during the McKinley campaign, the party under whose fostering care all these thieving and rascally combinations of the Morgan stamp have fattened and been granted privilege until they rolled in wealth while all the rest of us sweated it, the party that elected Roosevelt and smiled blandly when he allowed the Morgan mob of financial freebooters to absorb Tennessee Coal and Iron, the party that contributed that Mark Hanna debauching fund and sanctioned it—as an editorial advocate of that party, we ask, are you not, as a "teacher of the people," just as much "particeps criminis" as those you so truthfully assail in the above editorial? If not, why not?

What power can save them? Why, that same power of the Saviour that Morgan invoked—they and you. But, first, must come repentance, and when you lambast President Wilson every issue for trying his best to have some kind of remedial legislation enacted that will curtail the crimes of these trust magnates and stop, at least to some extent, their devilish plots of robbery of the whole people, we fail to note the signs of repentance.

We charge directly and absolutely that the Republican party is to blame for the financial crimes committed by these millionaire pirates. We charge, in addition, that when Theodore Roosevelt went out of office, as a Republican, there were ten times as many trusts in good working order than there were when he was elected.

By what theory or logic can you, or anybody else, be a Republican and not condone the system which built up the Morgans and the Mellens? Or, also how can they be Progressives and not condone that same system, when George W. Perkins, head of the nefarious harvester trust and deep into the mire of Morgan's billion dollar steel trust, is 'the head bull moose apostle of righteousness that is to lead the people out of the financial wilderness and to—God knows where?

Also, why censure President Wilson and the present Democratic administration for trying honestly and honorably to abolish many of the ills of which you complain?

Maybe we are wrong in these deductions. We lay no claim to infallibility. Everybody is as full of errors as a pup of fleas, but if we are wrong, then we want to be shown, and want information—heads and gobs of it.

Why should we court perturbation
And fresh wrinkles—heaven defend!
Seeking spots to spend vacation,
When we've nothing else to spend?

Chickens are different from folks
In all the climes and weathers.
Hens wear the sober, modest cloaks,
The males the fancy feathers.

If the tobacco chewer dressed décolleté, as the ladies do nowadays, his chest would look freckled.

When a toper gets thoroughly alcoholized he wants liquor in his ice cream and more of the same in his cake.

When a woman has an independent income she comes pretty near acting that way with it, which is proper.

General Manager Dean of the Pullman company says their methods are the best to serve the people. Mr. Dean has another think coming.

With the weather so hot back east that people are dropping dead with heat prostration, the Greek shoe-shiners must have all returned to Greece. Who threw that brick?

And speaking of that awful heat wave in the east, perhaps we may be excused for venturing the opinion that the backbone of winter back there has been broken.

And now the dispatches state that congress will sit until August. Well, let it sit. In the meantime we are going to keep right on contending that our hens do not sit—they set.

We have been reading up on a lot of different religious creeds lately, and know less about it all now than we did before, if that is possible. Seems like what we need more than anything else is an asbestos shroud.

The protection that George W. Perkins, head of the harvester trust and high in the steel trust, also head of the Progressive party next in command under Roosevelt, would give to the dear people, is the same kind of protection that the coyote gives to the jackrabbit.

Two years ago President Taft pardoned Banker Morse out of the penitentiary so he could go home and die, and he is alive yet and feeling fine. Mr. Morse ought to hurry up and die, or he may be under suspicion of untruthfulness, as well as embezzlement.

JUDGE RICHARDS AND HIS RECORD

Judge J. E. Richards who was appointed to the appellate bench of this district two years ago is a candidate to succeed himself. Mr. Richards is a very able jurist and is known in all parts of the state. The San Jose Mercury in speaking of the candidacy of Judge Richards, says:

"John Evan Richards was born in San Jose on July 7, 1850. His father and mother were people of piety and patriotism. As a boy Judge Richards knew the inspiration of meeting such men as Colonel Edward D. Baker as guests in his father's home. He was educated in the public schools, and from them drew the democracy of spirit which is the highest qualification of an American called to deal out justice to his fellow citizens. He was graduated from the University of the Pacific, and while a student there laid the foundations of the liberal culture which has kept him in touch with the best thought of the older world and with the soundest and most advanced ideas of our own expanding times."

"Then he went to the University of Michigan to be trained as a lawyer. There he learned of Judge Thomas M. Cooley, the greatest teacher of the law. The institution at the time had a remarkable law faculty. The University of Michigan was then the leading American law college. Young Richards was a diligent and apt pupil. Endowed with an excellent memory and acute reasoning faculties he took a Michigan University could give him—and retained it all. Even as a freshman at the law school his worth was recognized by his fellow-students, who although he hailed from the most distant State and reached the University without a single acquaintance, his class of 400 elected him their first Class President."

"On graduating in law he passed two years in the leading law office in San Jose and thus splendidly equipped he began here his legal practice. As an advocate few lawyers equalled him in the clearness and force with which he presented his cases. He had always a keen insight into what was right and having chosen his ground he brought to bear on his case all the resources of his ripe mind. He seldom failed of success; and what is more to his credit than his success even was this, that he never lost sight of the highest ideals of his profession in his efforts toward victory."

"With such training and the experience of twenty-nine years of legal study behind him he was appointed Superior Judge in 1907 by Governor Gillett. Everybody expected him to be successful on the Bench and nobody was disappointed. He was marked for it. He at once took a place among the ablest trial judges in the State. He was elected of course, in 1908; and on October first, 1914, was selected by Governor Johnson to fill the place on the Appellate Bench of this district made vacant by the death of Judge Samuel P. Hall. Since he has occupied this position he has increased his reputation as a Judge."

"His opinions are characterized by brevity, clarity and soundness of view. He has written the strongest opinion yet promulgated by any appellate tribunal in this State, construing the Constitutional Amendment by which it is provided that no criminal cause shall be reversed for any technicality unless there has been a miscarriage of justice."

Edmund Breese in "The Master Mind" at the Richmond Theatre Tonight

"THE MASTER MIND" OFFERED AT RICHMOND

"The Master Mind" presented by Jesse L. Lasky with America's foremost star, Edmund Breese, will be shown at the Richmond theatre to-day only.

The story is a deluge of breath-holding climaxes, red blooded situations and a plot that unwinds with thrilling continuity to a superb denouement. Recognized as the most ingenious mystery story ever conceived and a magnificent demonstration of what can be done on the screen. As to the manner in which the subject has been handled by the Lasky players there is everything to be said in favor of them. A strong cast and able direction has produced a strong and well connected story, there are thrills and "punches"—and when once the real story is revealed, there is a strong element of suspense that holds the attention spellbound to the very last minute. Tomorrow the Adventures of Kathlyn No. 9, entitled "The Spell-bound Multitude," will be shown.

When work becomes a habit it isn't as hard as when a necessity.

Most work is done during daylight and most thinking at night.

It's getting so that one can't even prove anything by witnesses.

Fish and good resolutions don't keep very well in hot weather.

Your competitors had no right to be born during your generation.

The orator of the day is so apt to think he should put in full time.

Jude Johnson bids fair to be congratulated for longevity, and that is all.

Don't give your children more advantages than they can afford in after years.

Perhaps the auctioneer is called a colonel because he commands high prices.

To reach the top don't fool away your time steady the ladder for others.

In a flat it is almost as objectionable to raise your voice as it is to raise children.

The only decent way for a man to beat up his wife is to arise before she does.

A man who is careless about directions when he expectorates is not henpecked.

A woman never wants her husband to tell her the truth about her new hat or dress.

Some men are enemies to each other probably because they were once good friends.

Reporters always like to write that the defendant was the coolest man in the court room.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headache, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

MRS. BIAS READS "MARY MAGDALENE"

Mrs. Laura Conwell Bias was heard to great advantage at the Presbyterian church last night in her reading of Maurice Maeterlinck's "Mary Magdalene." There was an excellent attendance. The audience appreciated the rendition of this beautiful piece of literature.

All some men do is have good principles.

In these days of sordid commercialism, the highbrow with a Message for the People, insists on selling it on the Chautauqua circuit.

Men are either polite or giddy, and you can always tell without hearing her when there is a woman at the other end of the telephone.

Everyone needs excuses occasionally, but they shouldn't be overworked, overwork being worse on excuses than on tired business men.

Sometimes, contrary to your loud and lengthy statement, you are not as good as your neighbors.

Far be it from this one to knock on tradition, but he doesn't believe any one ever put a button in the collection box at church.

Dr. C. R. Blake makes a specialty of all eye, ear, nose and throat troubles. Glasses accurately fitted. Offices in Pillow Bldg., 707 Macdonald ave., at Seventh st. mar5-lyr

CHAT AND DOPE BASEBALL

BIG RECEPTION IS PLANNED FOR LOCALS AT MARTINEZ SUNDAY

Hurray, and still another hurray. Aw gwan!

Yep, fellows, day after tomorrow you can fling yourself into one of those deep plush-lined morris chair seats and begin your journey to the drowsy town of Martinez where the first of the three game series between the locals and the county seat boys will be staged.

Sure we are going to get a grand reception. Why, the custodians of the county funds have even arranged to go so far as to fire off the old one-pounder which has rested in front of the court house since the Ma'n was sunk in Havana harbor.

But perhaps the chief feature of the town of bars (jail) and other bars will be the diamond upon which the first match for the mysterious $200 is to be played. From important data which we have received the diamond is located on the side of a steep hill, home plate being in the middle of the hill, so that if the runner should by chance creep the pellet he runs down hill to first base, takes a deep breath and starts running up hill to second where he pauses, takes some more breath, and drags himself into third base from which station he is hauled with a block and tackle to the home station.

At the base of the hill are three gullies in which the fielders can hide while the sun is out. Perhaps the greatest matter of misfortune that could have befallen the local team is for "Butch" Woodbury to have his stamping ground in right field where a large apple tree is just beginning to show its paris green plumage.

But outside of that everything will be lovely. Certainly they have restaurants in the town but no restrictions will be placed on parties caring to bring their own home-cooked eatables along with them. The two teams will line up for the game in the following manner.

Richmond—Burns p; Gordan, p; Ingraham c; Trell 1st b; French 2nd b; Hyatt 3rd b; Cunningham short stop; Woodbury left field; McCormick right field.

"I'M 'FIXED' FOR CLOTHES, STANLEY"

"HOW ABOUT YOU?"

"Foolish question, Ned! When did you ever hear of me having money for new clothes as near the beginning of the season as this? I'll be lucky if I get MY Summer Suit by August!"

"Sounds like hard luck, Stanley, for a fact. But cheer up! If you really WANT a nifty Suit like this one of mine, I'll tell you how you can buy it tomorrow.

"Go up to Cherry's store, at 528 13th St. Cherry's sell all their Suits on CREDIT, and the new summer patterns I saw up there for $20 & $25 are the most exceptional values I've seen anywhere. I noticed some smart Pencil Stripes among them—the variety of styles and cuts is simply immense!

Saturday evening is a mighty popular shopping time, for Cherry's are open then.

"Just take a walk over to 528 13th St., Oakland and see their display. The ladies' store is at 515 15th St. The San Francisco stores are at 1009 Market and 2400 Mission Sts."

"That mother of mine always was a bargain hunter," said a small boy when informed by his father that twins had arrived.

How bravely we all talk when duty looks painful.

Now the distribution must soon be withdrawn, and the date of closing has already been announced.

Lose no time in clipping and presenting the song book coupons, which are printed daily, for you'll need a copy of this book for yourself and you'll also want several additional copies for your friends.

The Record-Herald is not surprised at the great interest in this offer. It is not unusual for readers to inquire where they can get the words to this old song or to some other old favorite, that it has been difficult to recall to memory—and here are all the old favorites bound together in one volume. The volume consists of seven books in one, for in it there are home songs, love songs, patriotic, sacred and college songs and also operatic and national songs.

NO INCREASE IN TAXES BY WATER SUPPLY

Why confuse the water bond issue by talk of increased taxes? The two have nothing whatever in common.

To anyone who gives the matter a second thought, it must be clear that there are two distinct classes of public bonds.

The first, a public improvement bond, such as for streets, sewers, schools and other necessities which make life more worth living, but which do not bring in a direct revenue.

The second class includes bonds for a public service utility, such as telephone, electric service, street railway, water and public necessities, the service of which can be sold to individuals at a definite price.

It must be clear that the first class of bonds must be paid for by some sort of direct tax.

The second class, public utilities, represent a business investment having a definite relation to the public consumer. There is something to sell. Like any other good business venture, the product will be sold for enough to pay all the costs of producing it, besides the necessary interest and sinking fund charges.

It is so with the proposed water bonds. The law requires that the system be self supporting. The rate set for water must be made large enough to meet interest, operating costs, and sinking fund. The taxpayers, as such, are fully protected. The rate payers or water consumers merely pay for what they get and what they would have to have anyway and would pay for at a higher rate if bought from a private corporation.

The money for the water system will not come from the people of the district, but from outside capitalists who will receive a low rate of interest gradually out of the money earned. The water commission merely asks the credit of the district so that they can borrow the money on this basis for this purpose.

WATER BOND ELECTION SET FOR JULY 22

Complete details were completed last night by the directors of the Richmond municipal water district for the $2,500,000 bond issue. It will be held Wednesday, July 22.

Opportunity for voters to register for this election closes Monday evening. Voters who are properly registered do not have to register again, but those who have changed locations of homes, or who had failed to register before must do so before Monday night. The law provides that registrations must be made thirty days before the election.

Data and general information with regard to the proposition involved by the water bond issue will be compiled and issued in pamphlet form.

Nine precincts were selected, and were provided with the following voting places:

The City Hall, Justice's Court, Fire House No. 3, the City Library, Lincoln school, Fairview Hotel, Progressive Clubhouse, Davis Hall, and Maple Hall at San Pablo.

The judges and election clerks were appointed.

WINFREE'S BIG SALE ATTRACTS ATTENTION

The sale of Men's and Boys' clothing, furnishing goods, etc., now going on at Winfree's store, 106 Macdonald avenue, is certainly attracting much attention among the Richmond men. While Mr. Winfree's sales have always been liberally patronized owing to the lowness of prices at which the merchandise has been sold, yet no previous sale held by this popular firm has ever approached in magnitude of values the one now in progress.

Mr. Winfree has not confined the price-cutting to any particular line of goods but on the contrary has made most drastic reductions on everything in the store. Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats, Shoes, etc., have been greatly cut in price. In this store's advertisement elsewhere in this issue of the Record-Herald some most attractive prices will be found.

MEETING OF WOMENS BOARD OF P. P. I. E.

Alvin E. Pope, director of the Department of Education and Sociology of the Exposition, will address the regular monthly meeting of the San Francisco auxiliary of the Woman's Board, P. P. O. E. next Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Fairmont Hotel. The meeting is open to the public and women especially are invited. Mrs. George B. Sperry will preside in the absence of Mrs. A. P. Black, the San Francisco chairman.

This will be Director Pope's first appearance before the public since his recent return from the east where he spent several months arranging for large and interesting exhibits in his department. Since Education and Sociology embrace many phases of welfare work, his address will be of notable interest to the Auxiliary members, as all welfare work has a strong appeal to women. Director Pope has many new ideas in regard to exhibits of educational and sociological features, and much that comes under these two headings will be treated in an absolutely new manner. Of these divergences from the old order of things he will tell at Thursday's meeting.

On the following Saturday afternoon the Auxiliary members will enjoy their regular monthly free excursion to the Exposition grounds. The members will assemble at the Fillmore street entrance between 1 and 2 o'clock and the guide will leave the gate for a tour of the grounds promptly at 2 o'clock. All members will be admitted free of charge. Their guests who are not members will be admitted upon payment of the regular admission fee, 25 cents.

Off for Redwoods.

Mrs. C. R. Blake, accompanied by her son, Herbert, and William Lane, son of Councilman Lane, left this morning for Boulder Creek, where they intend to spend several days.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Try This! Mix Sage Tea and Sulphur and brush it through your hair, taking one strand at a time.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.

CONTRA COSTA COUNTY NEWS

of the class of this special number may be gained from the statement that the 6000 copies to be issued represent an outlay of over $5000. A novel method of distribution will be resorted to in order that intending visitors may be given an opportunity to see for themselves some of the wonders of these glorious sections. A copy will be sent to 1000 ticket agents of the big, boosting railroads in the Eastern and Middle States, with a special letter explaining the features, and asking that the Magazine Edition be kept on file, and shown those inquiring about the great exposition at San Francisco and the outlying districts, where so many are awaiting an opportunity to purchase land.

The editor of the Tracy Press made a visit to the Brentwood country in Contra Costa county a few days ago and looked over the Brentwood Irrigated Farms, after which he wrote the following interesting story about them in his paper:

"The Balfour-Guthrie people have certainly laid well the foundation for an excellent colony. Their improvements are of the best that money can buy, and if they carry out their expressed intention of selling only to the best and most desirable class of settlers they will have one of the best colonies in the state of California in a very few years."

"A handsome hotel building has been erected, one that would do credit to a city of 50,000 inhabitants, and have also established a bank in a handsome structure."

The irrigation system has just been completed, and money and engineers could not improve upon it. The water is lifted by centrifugal pumps driven by electricity and deposited in a concrete lined canal and by it carried to the next pumping station, and so on until it has reached a height of 139 feet. The pump houses, seven in all, are of concrete material. This has been done, we are informed, at a cost of between $25 and $30 per acre.

The construction is such that it will last for ages and the only expense the settlers will be called upon to pay is the maintenance charge, which will be $3 per acre up, according to the amount of water used.

At the foot of the eastern slope of Mount Diablo, the highest mountain in the region of San Francisco bay, lies the Rancho Los Meganos, one of the old time "Spanish grants" dispensed with a liberal hand by the Mexican government prior to the annexation of California.

The Rancho Los Meganos, comprising over 13,000 acres, was purchased from the Mexican owners by Dr. John Marsh, one of the sturdy pioneers of the "days of '49." In a beautiful spot at the south end of the rancho he built, in the year 1856, a substantial house of stone obtained from the neighboring hills. The "stone house," believed to be the first structure of its kind in California, is still in existence and in a good state of preservation.

During all these years the Rancho Los Meganos has been devoted chiefly to the cultivation of the staple cereals. Large crops were uniformly raised, and of a quality which made this section of the country justly celebrated for the excellence of its products. The land, however, was capable of higher uses if irrigated, and the new owners, who foresaw the possibilities of greater development, immediately laid plans for bringing water to the land. These plans have now reached completion, and water in abundance is available for the lands in the Rancho Los Meganos, renamed "Brentwood Irrigated Farms," as well as for many thousands of acres adjoining."

MAENNERCHOR OUTING AT HALF MOON BAY

The Richmond Maennerchor held its regular monthly outing in the old Spanish town now Halfmoon Bay last Sunday. What led to the selection of the place is the fact that it is at present the residence of A. W. Reddersen, formerly of Richmond, the former president of the society.

The visitors were met at the Ocean Shore depot by automobiles and driven along the beach previous to being taken to town. "Gus" had every hospitably provided for the entire crowd, some fifty persons in number.

After dinner all went to the Cunha opera house where a concert was given to a large audience.

Numbers of especial merit were the Troylean songs by Mr. and Mrs. Hinhart, the vocal solo by Mrs. Melanie Schwarz "Aloha Oe" (a tenor solo by Mr. Otto Keller.)

The society is making good progress under the able training of Herr Lohrmann, its director, who is bestowing his time and teaching free of charge. Richmond has every reason to be proud of this band of German Americans who so nobly strive to keep alive the German custom of a singing society, cultivating the few there is in vocal music.

THE BARACA BOYS HAVE BIG TIME

The Baraca Boys of the Catholic Baptist Church held their monthly business meeting in the Baraca club rooms, and gymnasium last night. Before the business meeting the "Wild Horses" and the "Strong Arms" fought two hotly contested games of volley ball and football.

The "Wild Horses" were captained by Emmett Hitchcock in football and Ralph Lewis in volley ball. The "Strong Arms" were headed by W. S. Stewart in football and L. S. Brisbin in volley ball. The "Wild Horses" won the football game with the score of 5 to 0, and the volley ball they won 3 out of 4 games.

The business meeting was the most interesting held in the club rooms. After the meeting the bunch retired to Clark's and enjoyed a round of Baraca specials. The victorious "Wild Horses" were then entertained by the "Strong Arms" at the home of L. S. Brisbin. Doughnuts, coffee, and sandwiches were served before all retired to their respective homes declaring that the monthly meetings were proving the most successful events of the club.

DAMAGE SUIT RESULTS FROM BROKEN LEASE

Suit for damages filed by Mrs. J. Banducci against Miss K. Rudden is being heard by Judge Latimer at Martinez today. The damage suit is the result of an alleged breach of contract.

Mrs. Banducci, according to the complaint filed, leased to Miss Rudden certain property at Pullman as a rooming house. Miss Rudden failed to continue to run the place and moved out. Mrs. Banducci now claims damages, and a compelled continuance of the lease.

NO DATE SET FOR ADDRESS ON SOCIETY

No date has been set for the talk to be delivered by Mrs. Joseph R. Knowland to the women of Richmond on "Social Life at Washington." Although the various clubs of this city are ready to set a day, Mrs. Knowland accompanied her husband to Los Angeles yesterday, where he is to make the closing speech before the convention of Native Sons of the Golden West.

OCTOGENARIAN DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

MARTINEZ, June 19.—Abel Mignon, age 82, a resident of Martinez for many years, died at his home here Wednesday night. Death was due to the infirmities of old age, the octogenarian having been feeble and closely confined for some time prior to his passing.

Two daughters residing in San Jose, who are engaged in teaching school, survive him. The deceased was a native of France and was a tailor in Martinez for many years, being well known and highly respected by nearly every one in this city.

The body is in charge of Curry's undertaking parlors, and will be shipped to Oakland Saturday morning where the remains will be cremated.

CAREFUL CAMPERS WILL BE WELCOME

The Mount Diablo Park Club has opened the famous Oakwood Park Stock Farm, leading from Danville to the top of the Mountain. Camping places have been arranged so that parties visiting the Mountain may camp over night, provided they camp upon these reservations.

Those wishing to visit the Mountain can take the Oakland, Antioch & Eastern Railway to Diablo, which is a small station beyond Danville, and they can either walk to the top of the Mountain, or can hire saddle horses from the Mount Diablo Park Club, at the rate of $2.00 per day, provided the horses are engaged in advance.

On account of the heavy growth of this year there is unusual danger of fire, and all parties visiting the mountain are required to go to the Mount Diablo Park Club and register their names and get admission tickets to the Mountain. Those not complying with these instructions will be turned back by the patrol.

LOCAL EAGLE AERIE MEETING LAST NIGHT

Al Brown, Grand Inside Guard of the State Aerie of Eagles, made his report of the coming meeting of the Grand Aerie at Fresno next month at the regular session of the local lodge last night.

The local aerie is planning to hold its annual outing at East Shore Park on August 9. Because of the absence of Worthy President Patterson, who is away visiting his son, who is ill at Bakersfield, Vice Worthy President H. D. Mason presided.

MARION WARDE IN TITLE ROLE AT THE MAJESTIC

"Too Much Galatea" is the title of the clever one-act comedy to be produced at the Majestic Theatre for three nights beginning tonight. The Parker Players have had this play in preparation for some time and it should make quite a hit.

Miss Marian Warde in the title role, as the statue, Galatea, is particularly adapted to the part, being of exceptionally fine figure and having every requirement necessary for a perfect production.

The dialogue of this little play is full of good comedy and insures many good laughs for those attending the Majestic during the next three nights.

Many people have the impression that the prices will be raised for this exceptionally good bill but such is not the case. The prices will remain the same, ten cents for all seats; children five cents.

RELICS GATHERED FROM INDIAN MOUND

Ed Workman, of Richmond, gathered some very good specimens of spear heads, mortars and pestles, and is today making further search for his collection.

City Engineer Chapman expects to take a trip to the mound. Chapman has a splendid collection of relics which he has gathered from mounds opened in and around this country.
